FOR CONGRESS,
HENRY D. ALLEN,
OF UNION COUNTY.

TO DAILY SUBSCRIBERS.

The close of the war is at hand and our war daily will be discontinued in a short while. It has not been our intention to make the daily a permanency, for the reason that we personally prefer a branch of the newspaper business that is less confining and laborious. We have other publications that require a portion of the time and attention bestowed upon the daily during the last three or four months. We have, however, found it a pleasant and profitable experience during the war to publish a paper every day, but will nevertheless drop the daily after this week, unless there should be an unexpected prolongation of hostilities. There will be no better opportunity than the present for us to thank the hundreds of friends and patrons who have so generously helped us to make the daily a success. It started out with a list large enough to place it upon a paying basis and its circulation has steadily increased. We have made no attempt to inflate the circulation, but have adhered as rigidly as possible to the cash system and under this policy have maintained a circulation that has all along been most gratifying. The street sales have also been a considerable source of revenue, the sales on some days exceeding 100 papers. For three and a half months, during the dull season of the year, it has paid its way and will quit with a balance on the credit side of the ledger. We have every reason to believe that it would continue to prosper, but for the reasons stated above we prefer to retire from the daily field, at least for the present.

Subscribers who have paid in advance, and who do not care to transfer any balance due them to the semi-weekly, can call at the counting room and have the matter adjusted when the daily is discontinued.

Judge Vincent Borcing, of London, Ky., is to be Congressman Colson's successor in the House from the Eleventh district. He has been nominated by the Republicans and the nomination is equivalent to an election.

The number thirteen again figures in an unlucky transaction. Miss Mary E. Douglass has sued Perry Woolery, at Bedford, Ind., for $10,000 damages for breach of promise. She alleges that he courted her for thirteen years and wound up by not marrying her.

Miss Arnold, the pretty St. Louis Jewess who kissed Hobson, says she kissed him "on the spur of the moment." Several hundred witnesses are under the impression that she kissed his lips. We move to strike out the word "moment" and insert "moustache."

The story that the Third Regiment is unfit for service from epidemics of mumps and measles will not hold water. All of the Hopkinsville boys who write home say the troops are enjoying fine health.

Maj. Gen. Shafter reports 431 new cases of fever in his army on Saturday, and 477 returned to duty. There are now 3,681 on the hospital list, of whom 2,638 have fever.

Ambassador Hay and Secretary Day, it is said, will be two of our three peace commissioners. If this be true, the "ays" will have it when it comes to a vote.

Some enterprising reporter should hasten to interview Miss Cook, of Kansas, on the subject of the Hobson-Arnold kiss.

The trouble with Spain will end with everybody cursing the war department.

The ex-Empress Eugenie is dying.

Suppose Weyler should turn up on the Peace commission?

Ellen Wheeler Wilcox, who is an authority on kisses, contributes this opinion to the Post-Dispatch on Miss Arnold's patriotic kiss:

"The young woman who kissed Mr. Hobson saluted heroism. She would have done the same had the hero been a heroine. She forgot sex in sentiment. It is doubtful if Mr. Hobson was equally forgetful. He, no doubt, forgot that he was a hero, and remembered that he was a man. At that moment it is to be questioned if he remembered the Maine. He will assuredly remember the girl. To some women a kiss is the highest expression of regard. It is the royal seal of Queen Woman's approval, whether it falls on a kitten or a conqueror. While the woman who asked the privilege of kissing Mr. Hobson is to be congratulated for her achievement, the woman whom Mr. Hobson will ask the privilege of kissing will be a greater interest. That will be quite another story and quite another kiss."

Told In Poetry.

The way it happened, as pictured by the highly imaginative poet of the Sunday Post-Dispatch:

Oh, the glamor
And the clamor
Of the Hobson-Arnold kiss!
Lovely Emma!
Sweet dilemma,
Which the hero couldn't miss!

At the seaside,
On the leaside
Of a summer hostelry,
Came the issue,
"May I kiss you?"

Chirped the maid to Richmond P.

Eyes appealing
Set him reeling—
Luckiest he of living men!
Cuss the Dago!
Santiago

Had no charms for Richmond then.

For it true is
That St. Louis

Girls are neater, sweeter far
Than all others,
(Like their mothers)

Makes no difference who they are.

So the maiden,
Beauty-laden,

Glued a kiss upon the lips
That were cheerful
'Neath the fearful

Rain of lead from Spanish ships.

Hobson, go! You
Have all we owe you.

What are shells that madly whirl
To the blisses
Of the kisses

Of a sweet Missouri girl?

—J. GETCHER GUNN.

Gen. Wood has forced the bakers, butchers and other dealers in necessities, to stop charging exorbitant prices for their supplies at Santiago. War or no war, this looks very much like an unlawful invasion of private rights. Some of our new Generals are liable to become too fresh, unless they are salted down occasionally.

Jim Kehoe has a handsome lead in the instructed vote for Congressman in the Ninth district. The convention meets on the 10th. Kehoe has 42 votes, 12 less than enough. Waller Sharp is the contending man with about 30 votes, the rest being distributed among several "favorite sons."

As published in last Saturday's KENTUCKIAN, the peace proposition was accepted by the Spanish Cabinet and placed in the hands of the Queen Regent Saturday. This conclusion, approved by the Queen, is expected at Washington to-day.

The Maria Teresa has been raised and put in a condition to be kept afloat and is now enroute to Norfolk under her own steam. The wrecking company contracted to raise the ships and take them to Norfolk. Work will begin next on the Cristobal Colon.

Great Britain and Russia are becoming very unfriendly and England's navy and army are being put on a war footing to be ready for emergencies.

The grand hustle of Shafter's army to get out of Cuba began Saturday and the 25,000 troops will leave as fast as they can get transported.

Col. Jas. O. Broadhead, Minister to Switzerland under Cleveland, is dead at St. Louis.

GOOD ONE MAX.

Republican Lawyer Tries to Put a Letter in a Fire Alarm Box.

Col. Max Hanberry, the Republican lawyer, who recently moved here from Cadiz, is experiencing some embarrassment in learning city ways. Of course, in time he will catch on to the ways of the city man, and everything will go all right, says the Paducah News. Paducah has many things that the Trigg county citizens cannot find in Cadiz. Among them are the letter and fire alarm boxes. They all look alike to Col. Hanberry. He thought, of course, he knew how to get into the infernal things, and walking up to a fire alarm box at Third and Broadway, with the air of a brigadier general he tried in vain to deposit a letter. A group of citizens standing on the opposite corner noticed the mistake and were laughing heartily, when Col. Hanberry caught on. He glanced around for a few seconds, and then said, "What'll you take, boys?"

Yesterday afternoon, while two gentlemen were passing Col. Hanberry's office, he came out with two letters, and said to one of them, "Will you kindly mail these letters for me?" He was afraid to attempt it again.

AN ANNUAL OUTING.

Present Indications Point to a Large Crowd for Old Point.

As the time draws nearer for the departure of the Old Point party the crowd naturally increases in number and the indications now point to a most successful trip. New names are being handed in daily and sleeping car reservations are being rapidly secured. This is beyond a doubt the most pleasant trip that could be taken from this section, for a summer outing, and the people are always anxious to avail themselves of the opportunity afforded them.

These personally conducted parties have been run for so long that the elegant manner in which they have been conducted has so impressed the public that it is useless to go into details. The trip is so arranged as to give those who have time to make a long stay an opportunity to do so, and still offers many advantages to the tourist who can only spend a few days. The beautiful and picturesque scenery all along the line must only be seen to be appreciated and always remembered. The elegant vestibuled train service and the manner in which the C. & O. handles its personally conducted excursions is acknowledged to be far superior to any other line. The outing Aug. 16th will be run upon the same plane of elegance as former excursions, and new features will be added.

FRANKS IN TROUBLE.

Jolly Prefers Charges Against Him at Washington.

A special from Washington says: "The Secretary of the Treasury is preparing a letter to Collector of Internal Revenue E. T. Franks, of Owensboro, which is said to be sizzling. This letter will probably be made public on Monday. It will state in plain terms that his resignation will be called for unless the present willful violation of the civil service law ceases. The turning out of Democrats is not exactly the trouble this time. Mr. Franks is accused of using the influence of his office and also the post-offices in his district for manipulating the coming convention which meets for the purpose of nominating a candidate for the empty honor of running for Congress in the Second district. Complaint has been made by friends of the Hon. Geo. W. Jolly, who is the anti-Franks candidate, that the whole influence of the Administration's employees is being used against him, which is in violation of one of the cardinal principles of civil service. The case is similar to the one Collector Sapphad on his hands in Louisville, when that official received a letter which not only made him keep hands off, but caused him to become the active supporter of Representative Walter Evans. If the Secretary's letter has the same effect on Franks, the Hon. George W. Jolly's nomination is assured." Col. Jas. O. Broadhead, Minister to Switzerland under Cleveland, is dead at St. Louis.

RELIABILITY

Is a quality some newspapers have lost sight of in these days of "Yellow" Journalism. They care little for the truth and a great deal for temporary sensation.

It is not with THE DISPATCH. The success of THE DISPATCH rests upon its reliability. It prints the news—all of the news—and tells the truth about it.

ITS WAR NEWS SERVICE

Can not be excelled. It is gathered by forty-two war correspondents and eight fast dispatch boats at the seat of war, and a salaried correspondent in every important city in the world. The most critical period of the war will be during peace negotiations. Get the paper that tells the truth.

Our Motto: If you see it in THE DISPATCH it's so, and if it's so it is always in THE DISPATCH.

THE DISPATCH news service is now furnished by the New York Sun, The Chicago Inter Ocean, The Northern Press Association, The Leslie Syndicate and a staff of correspondents in Kentucky, Tennessee and Indiana second to none on a Southern newspaper.

We club with The Weekly Louisville Dispatch; both papers one year for the low sum of $2.00.

An Old Adage Reads:

"There is a place for every thing." Now for everything to be in its place the Louisville Dispatch should be in the home of every Democrat in the South. The Louisville Dispatch is the people's paper, owned by the people and read by the people. The Louisville Dispatch is the only Democratic paper published in Louisville. It stands squarely on the Chicago platform. It is not only in a flourishing condition after eighteen months battling against adverse circumstances, but is to day the best News medium in the South. And its motto—if you see it in the Dispatch it's so; if it's so it is always in the Dispatch, has been fully verified during the American Spanish War, during which the superiority of its news service has been daily apparent.

The Dispatch news service is furnished by the New York Sun, the Chicago Inter Ocean, the Northern Press Association and the Leslie Syndicate, which an active salaried correspondent in every important city in the world, besides its own staff of over 300 correspondents in Kentucky, Tennessee and Indiana. Get The Dispatch, it gives the news, and it tells the truth about it.

The Dispatch is Kentucky's greatest paper. You should be a reader. For the next few weeks we will club with the Weekly Dispatch at the extremely low price $2.00.

SPECIFICATIONS.

The Head—Is five and one-half inches high and eight and one-half inches long, inside measurement. This is as high as any family machine made, and must not be confounded with the medium or so-called high-arm machines. The head plate sets into, or level with, the table.

The Needle—Is straight, self-acting, flat on one side and cannot be self-wrong.

The Shuttle—Is open on the end, cylinder-shaped and absolutely self-threading.

The Bearings—Are all steel, well fitted and adjustable.

Self-threading—The machine is self-threading, and no hole to put the thread through, except the eye of the needle.

The Feed—Is positive in action, and has no springs to get out of order.

Automatic Bobbin Winder—Will wind the bobbin as smooth as on a spool of thread.

The Stitch—Is double lock stitch. The same on both sides and will not unravel. Can be lengthened or shortened from eight to thirty stitches to the inch.

The Tension—Is a flat-spring tension and adjustable to all sizes of thread.

Hand Wheel—Is nickel plated and has a loose wheel attached to operate bobbin-winder without running machine.

The Movement—Is the celebrated eccentric movement, positive in action and fewer working parts than any machine on the market.

The Stand—Has large balance wheel, hangs on two adjustable centers. The treadle is large and hangs in cone centers and all lost motion can be taken up, asters under each end, and can be easily moved. A nice dress guard over wheel to keep dress from getting on wheel. Attachments—Are the famous Johnson's set, in a tin box, and consists of tucker, ruffler, four hemmers, binder, quilting foot, hemmer and feller, under braider and shaver, oil can and oil, two screw drivers, six bobbins, paper of needles, thumb screw, gauge, and book of directions.

The Furniture—Is well made highly polished and elegant in appearance. All these machines will be sent out with oak furniture unless walnut is specified. Each machine has a lock to the drawers and cover, nice nickel-plate drop rings to all drawers. All machines are well packed and crated.
